

WESTERLY

Casa de Campo, Dominican Republic

SOTHEBYS
International Realty

One of the Caribbean's finest properties, a magnificent 6+ acre seaside estate, in the distinguished international resort of Casa de Campo

This splendid seaside enclave is set in Casa de Campo, a private resort on the Dominican Republic's southern coastline. Lush palms and cascading bougainvillea highlight its lavish tropical grounds, which span an exquisite private beach along the Caribbean Sea.

Complementing its breathtaking setting, the magnificent residence, designed by noted-architect Jaquelin Robertson, shows a level of workmanship rarely found in modern times. Elegant and superbly scaled, this estate offers state-of-the-art luxury, while evoking the past through graceful Palladian-inspired design.

An exceptional setting for entertaining, the 18,000± square-foot house is arranged in arcaded pavilions, framing a garden courtyard centered on the grand salon. Here, far-reaching vistas overlook the pool and sea beyond. Appointed with polished teak and mahogany millwork and extensive coquina stone, the complex has multiple terraces and eight luxurious bedroom suites.

The estate also features separate staff quarters, a tennis court, and dining gazebos overlooking the sea. Whether for sporting pleasures or relaxation, this self-contained compound affords the discerning buyer the ultimate island paradise.

Location

A world-renowned private resort, Casa de Campo is located on the outskirts of La Romana, approximately 112 kilometers from the capital city Santo Domingo. Unparalleled resort amenities include 3 18-hole championship golf courses (one part of a private country club), 3 polo fields, riding stables, shooting range, marina, 13 tennis courts, 15 swimming pools, fine restaurants, a spectacular beach, and an international airport. Outstanding dining and cultural attractions are also available in Altos de Chavon, reminiscent of a 16th-century Mediterranean village, along the Chavon River.

Property

This splendid 6+ acre estate spans a pristine private beach on the Caribbean Sea. Amid gated seclusion, manicured tropical grounds boast exquisite gardens. Dramatic night lighting and an underground irrigation system are provided. Flanked by Terraces with a graceful Pavilion, the Swimming Pool is placed near the beach. The property also includes a professional-style Tennis Court with Pavilion, and 2 distinct Dining Gazebos poised near the shoreline. A graceful Motor Court leads to the main entry of the residence.

Residence

Designed by noted-architect Jaquelin Robertson, this magnificent Palladian-inspired, island-style estate is distinguished by impeccable attention to detail. Outstanding workmanship is shown in fine appointments of luxury-grade materials; polished teak